TODAY, THE Fall Millinery Modes

Are Being Shown. Your Inspection Is Requested

The Exhibit is distinguished by greater richness and ele-gance. Elaborate simplicity in the shaping itself; distinc-tive lines and unique trimming arrangements, exquisite textures, and dark, rich col-orings of the fabrics.

Plain, moirs, and panne velvets, pean de peche, or skin of the peach. Many models are shown, with soft erowns, small and mediun sized stiff brims; some of the shapes showing a decided upward turn on one side or back of the brim. Black and dark colored moires, faille silk, and entique for soft crown hats Breitchwanz or broadtail, in black and dark colors, is much

Black tete-de-ucere car. beau blue, dark marine, petrel, Russian green, and Rose du Barry are the colors most in exidence, particular attention being paid to tele-de-negre and carbeau blue.

Plain and novelty moir ribbons, also grosgrain and faille, are freely used-combined with velvets, breitch-wanz and peau-de-peche.

The predominating note in trimming will be a return of the extrich plumes, with aigrettes in abundance. In the feather fantasies, bronze coque, goura, ostrich handkprays of Numidi, and French plumes are used. Small estrich tips on draped tongues. Small bunch aigreties and novelties in vadifferent angles or audocious

EXTENSIVE EXHIBITION of JAPANESE CHINA SHOWING THE FINEST TABLE AND DECORATIVE WARES PRODUCED BY THE JAPANESE

For a long time one associated Japanese wares with vivid colorings and strictly Japanese decorations, mostly ornamental, and sometimes pieces that were not practical. While the admirers of the typical Japanese art will find much to interest them in this collection, in the large showing of decorative pieces, a marked departure from any previous display is the increased number and character of the pieces that can be made useful. Distinctive separate pieces or sets for various uses that fill a real want in the table service. New and novel forms of decoration have been effected, in both the raised and flat effects.

The exceptional character of many of the pieces creates an interest that has never before been attached to these handsome Japanese Wares.

THE EXQUISITE HAND-PAINTED NIPPON CHINA IS A WONDERFUL ARTISTIC ACHIEVEMENT THAT SHOWS THE SKILL OF JAPANESE ARTISTS.

MANY NEW PATTERNS IN BRILLIANT CUT GLASS

American Cut Glass has no superior for its beauty of design, artistic cutting, and the great diversity of shapes. This season's showing is rich in the large number of new designs and patterns, from the very simplest effects to those of very great elaboration. Cut glass affords so many opportunities for selecting gifts for Weddings and Anniversaries, &c., that our display will be found decidedly helpful to those who have such needs to fill.
